

oyster house keepers be authorized to sell liquor on Sunday, during the continuance of the Centennial Exhibition.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Temperance.

Mr. Waters, of Carroll, presented the petition of 60 citizens of Westminster District, Carroll county, to create an additional Justice of the Peace for that district.

Which was read and referred to the Carroll delegation.

Mr. Riggs presented the petition of E. F. Coblentz, H. Zittle, and twenty others, citizens of Maryland, representing that the "Maryland Agricultural College and Model Farm," has accomplished nothing for the advancement of agriculture notwithstanding the large sums of public money donated to it, and praying that the State buy out the private interest in said Institution and place the same in charge of a Commission or Board of intelligent and practical farmers to make it State Farm School, with power to remove it from its present site.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Agriculture.

Mr. Riggs presented the petition of Joshua Delantor and 40 other citizens of Frederick county, praying for a change in the Game Law of said county.

Which was read and referred to the Frederick delegation.

Mr. Waters, of Carroll, presented the petition of B. H. Sodd, M. D., asking the passage of an Act regulating the practice of medicine, obstetrics and surgery in this State.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Mr. Rutledge presented the petition of Eveline Ayres asking for a pension as a widow of a soldier of 1812.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Pensions.

Mr. Cockey presented the petition from Elfred Price, Thaddeus White, Dr. Wm. Denny and twenty others, to amend the Oyster Law, preventing dredgers from scraping from Kent Point to Love Point, in Queen Anne's county, a distance of four hundred yards from the shore.

Which was read and referred to Messrs. Cockey, Neal and Mattingly.

Mr. Rutledge presented the petition of Thos. Carman, of Harford county, asking for a pension as a soldier of 1812.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Pensions.

Mr. Cockey presented the petition from Ed. C. Legg, John